

M/F DRAMA

F 30s-40s

M 40s-50s

Reverend

If I could get him back to the charitable heart discount of a six and a quarter.

Sarah

I couldn't sell it.

Reverend

I have a hard time believing that Sarah. You seem so incredibly compelling, surely you could move Denise a little, perhaps in the way you move me.

Sarah

Im afraid I'm going to have to have another attorney handle this matter.

Reverend

I beg your pardon.

Sarah

Its just divorce law isn't my specialty and I feel Denise's interests aren't best being served.

Reverend

You're doing wonderful work here. We're almost at a meeting of the minds.

Sarah

Its not the meeting of the minds that concerns me. Im sorry I shouldn't have said that.

Reverend

What do you mean by that?

Sarah

Nothing I apologize. Im just,Im going to have to ask you to leave.

Reverend

Ok.

Sarah

Im attracted to you. I mean I'm not I just think I am which is to say I have a problem.

Reverend

A problem?

Sarah

Its a much larger discussion that has nothing to do with this case or the practice of law, its just I shouldn't be litigating with um clergy.

Reverend

What do you mean?

Sarah

This has to be between you and me, you cant even tell your client should it ever get back to my client.

Reverend

I give you my words.

Sarah

When I was fifteen years old I had a relationship with my minister, it was nothing soared, it was just the opposite. It was loving, it was gelentle. Ive never felt closer to God. We broke up after it was discovered. Since I've had three subsequent relationships with ministers and one with a Rabi. I have a clergy fetish.

Reverend

A clergy fetish?

Sarah

I've been secretly trying to prolong these negotiations just to be close to you.

Reverend
Maybe I can help you.

Sarah
You need to leave.

Reverend
Sarah.

Sarah
You need to leave now reverend. Just go.

John
So how did we do?

Sarah
He's ready to fall.

John
When?

Sarah
He'll be back and I'll close it.